10:30 h. From economy to bioeconomy (Regional Government of Andalusia)

The agri-food sector in Andalusia is of great economic importance, with a great impact also on the social and environmental aspects. Sub-sectors such as olive groves, vineyards and citrus fruits, among others, generate a large amount of by-products that can be used as biomass by the agro-food industries. What is a bio-industry? We will talk about it, about the viability of these bio-industries and we will present cases of traditional industries that are making this transition to a more sustainable figure from the social and environmental point of view
